

WARRIOR TRAILS

By Robin Newcomer

Our team is red hot! San Marino was squashed by the Warrior varsity football team 33-19 in our third straight victory of the season. Our fourth game will be against Rolling Hills in their stadium Friday at 3 p.m. Let's have a big turnout—tomorrow is the last day to buy your rooster's bus ticket.

The runners of West High, the 1967 cross country teams are also doing their best. Last Saturday at the El Camino Invitational all four teams won the championships competing in the small school division.

The top runners were Bob Cooper, varsity; Dave Garbriel, junior varsity; Bruce Brown, sophomores; and John Brown, freshmen. The junior varsity took all of the top six places while the others took five of the top eight places.

THE FROSH class set two records at their first election. Twenty-seven candidates ran for the four offices and 50 per cent of the class voted. Congratulations to the first semester officers who were announced at Friday's game. Jim Everett, president, will represent the class on the student council. Other frosh officers elected were Tim Ramirez, vice president; Lisa Hase, secretary; and Charlene Aihara, treasurer.

Classrooms will be open and parents talking with teachers on Oct. 17 at the annual open house sponsored by the PTA. The PTA meeting will begin at 7:15 and then at 7:30 parents will be able to visit students' classrooms. PTA membership envelopes are being sent out in the mail for all parents interested in joining the West High PTA. Get your 50-cent membership fee in soon!

SPECIAL get-acquainted parties will be held Nov. 11 in Los Angeles and Pasadena by the Southern California Branch of the Seven College Conference.

Representatives from the Eastern women's colleges—Radcliff, Vassar, Mount Holyoke, Wellesley, Bryn Mawr, Smith, and Barnard will be present to talk about their schools and admission requirements.

Trall's End!

Fall Match Set

The Pekin Pekingese Club will hold its annual Fall Match for Pekingese, ages two months through adult, Saturday, Oct. 21, at the Torrance Municipal Park.

Further information is available from Mrs. Dolly Carty, match chairman.

Birthday Breakfast Scheduled

Torrance B'nai B'rith, serving the entire Southwest area, celebrated the 127th anniversary of B'nai B'rith and the chartering of Torrance Lodge four years ago this month, with a free lox 'n' bagel birthday breakfast at the Lodge's new meeting hall, 4916 W. 190th St., Sunday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Earle Sumpter, second vice president, and chairman of the event, describes the breakfast as "an informal, friendly get-together," offering newcomers to the area an opportunity to get acquainted with the local B'nai B'rith organization.

Charter members of Torrance Lodge will be honored and a guest speaker will highlight the program.

Color TV Stolen From Area Home

A color TV set, an album rack containing 40 records, and a lavender bedspread were reported missing Sunday night from the home of Wayne F. Burke, 22905 Carlow Road. Value of the stolen items is about $690.

Burke returned home Sunday at 9:15 p.m. to discover that burglars had forced open the front door, police said.

Annual Housewares Sale In Progress at Thrifty

Thrifty Drug Stores in seven Western states this week will launch the annual Thrifty Fall Housewares Sale. The traditional sales event will feature all types of houseware items at spectacular once-a-year savings at all 297 stores.

According to Manny Borun, executive vice president of the drug chain, "Our annual Fall Housewares Sale has become a traditional money-saving event for countless families that take advantage of the exciting values to stock up on housewares supplies for their home. To maintain the reputation for sensational savings established by previous Fall Housewares Sales, we've instructed our managers to reduce prices on hundreds of items and make this the most exciting event in the history of this annual sale."

Exciting values are offered on buffet fry pans, hand mixers, and steam or dry irons. All metal ironing boards, spun nylon swag lamps, decorator pole lamps and all types of plastic tableware will be carrying sale price tags.

Local Thrifty managers advised that remarkable savings are available on glass percolators and coffeemakers and baking dishes.

Thrifty Drug Stores' annual Fall Housewares Sale is now under way. The sale ends Sunday.

Landscaping of the Harbor Freeway shoulders between 149th and 190th street will soon be under way, the State Division of Highways has reported. The state has awarded a contract for the planting of shrubs, additional trees, ground cover, and an irrigation system along the banks of the freeway. The project should be completed by Jan. 1, 1968.
